Description

You will love the convenience- just moments from top dining, shopping, the downtown river district and endless entertainment choices, beaches and boating. This home puts you at the heart of everything while keeping a peaceful charm. Perfect for anyone seeking an affordable retreat close to everything. This unit has two generous bedrooms upstairs. I bedroom has 4 beautiful, curved windows that look out back to the open grassy area, so peaceful. The other bedroom that looks over the pool that will be remodeled in the near future. The bathroom has been tastefully redone to make a nice clean crisp shower area. Downstairs is your area to do laundry near the front entrance door. Your galley kitchen is nice and bright with a wonderful pantry wall that just hides in the kitchen. Your living room is spacious and roomy with patio doors that brighten the room up and leads out to an open porch. Bonus there is loads of storage space under the stairs, and across the way is your half bath. Very nice and affordable place to staart you home onwership.
