Description

Excellent opportunity to own a versatile property designed for comfort, privacy, and beautiful curb appeal. This home offers a well-balanced design with inviting exterior details and a layout created for modern living. The residence features a smart floor plan that allows for the creation of a separate living space simply by closing a door. This private area includes its own kitchenette and a fully independent bathroom, making it ideal for multi-generational living, in-laws, guests, or anyone seeking additional privacy while remaining under the same roof. The home has been thoughtfully designed to ensure the private section feels separate while maintaining excellent flow throughout the house. The property offers a spacious paver driveway, an installed irrigation system, ceramic tile flooring throughout, and a beautifully designed main kitchen that is both functional and inviting for everyday living and entertaining. The exterior façade shown is the actual completed façade of the property. Landscaping will be completed, and some garden elements may vary.
