Description

A perfectly reimagined home, overlooking a secluded lake, with dappled light dancing through south facing windows to the exquisitely renovated living space: experience the pinnacle of coastal luxury at 4250 Lake Forest Dr #311 in Bonita Springs, FL. Tucked away at the quiet end of a street in the highly sought-after Sandpiper community of Bonita Bay, this exceptional end-unit condo offers both ultimate privacy and bright, sun-soaked rooms. With a new kitchen with graceful quartz countertops, new appliances, new bathrooms, new front door, new plantation shutters and new floors, no expense has been spared in making this the perfect vacation hideaway. The spacious 1,708-square-foot open floor plan naturally highlights three bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a lovely breakfast room centered around a charming bay window. Elegant flooring flows seamlessly throughout the main living spaces and bedrooms, providing move-in-ready appeal. Stepping outside, you can unwind to pristine southern lake views and lush tropical landscaping, or cross the street to access the community pool and tennis courts. Living here places you just moments from the private clubhouse, a full-service marina, and local fine dining, while granting full access to Bonita Bay's master amenities, including over 12 miles of biking paths, three waterfront parks, and a private beach club.
