Description

Tucked away in the quiet community of Barrington Cove, this inviting Naples residence offers the kind of everyday comfort and ease that makes a house feel like home. With 3 bedrooms plus a den, 3 full bathrooms, and over 2,400 square feet of living space, the layout is designed to adapt—whether you’re hosting friends, working from home, or simply enjoying a slower pace of life. The heart of the home flows effortlessly into the living and dining spaces, creating a natural gathering place filled with light and connection. The den provides flexibility for a home office, reading room, or additional guest space, while the split-bedroom layout allows for both privacy and togetherness when you need it most. Out back, the private pool invites you to start your mornings with coffee in the sun and wind down in the evenings with a quiet swim or dinner outdoors. It’s a space that encourages you to enjoy the best of Southwest Florida living year-round. Set within a peaceful neighborhood, yet just minutes from Naples’ shopping, dining, and world-renowned beaches, this home offers a balance of convenience and retreat that’s hard to find. Barrington Cove is known for its welcoming feel and central location—making it easy to settle in and feel at home from the moment you arrive.
