Description

Set along the waterfront in Cape Coral’s sought-after Yacht Club area, this three-bedroom, two-bathroom home combines boating access, an oversized lot, and a convenient location near downtown. With no bridges between the property and open water, boaters can spend less time navigating obstacles and more time fishing, cruising, or enjoying an afternoon on the water. The updated floor plan supports comfortable everyday living, while the new roof provides a valuable recent improvement. Three bedrooms and two bathrooms offer flexibility for a full-time home, seasonal getaway, or investment property. The oversized lot adds to the property’s appeal, providing more space in an established boating community. Buyers exploring rental possibilities may also request information about past rental income—because a waterfront property that may help earn its keep deserves attention. When it is time to trade the boat for a bicycle, nearby bike paths offer another way to enjoy the Yacht Club neighborhood. Downtown Cape Coral is close by, placing an array of restaurants within convenient reach. Explore the boating access, oversized lot, and investment potential for yourself. Schedule a private showing and request the available rental history today.
