Description

There's something truly special about this Pelican Landing end-unit condo—a sense of privacy, nature, and tranquility that you simply have to experience in person. This gorgeous FURNISHED residence is tucked into a peaceful setting with no building immediately next door, this upstairs residence feels wonderfully private from the moment you arrive. A long driveway leads to your private one-car garage, while inside, thoughtful updates and timeless details create a home that feels both polished and welcoming. The beautifully updated kitchen and two renovated baths are complemented by plantation shutters throughout, custom California Closets built-in shelving, and electric hurricane shutters on the lanai for added convenience and peace of mind. But it's the view that gives this home its magic. Step onto the lanai and you'll understand why photos simply can't capture it. A magnificent oak tree creates a beautiful natural backdrop and a front-row seat for watching birds and enjoying the peaceful surroundings. Look to the left and you'll catch a peek-a-boo view of the community pool; look to the right and your eye is drawn toward the lake and fountain. It's an unexpected combination of nature, water, and privacy that must be seen in person to be fully appreciated. And with all the exceptional amenities of Pelican Landing just beyond your door, you're not simply buying a condo—you're stepping into one of Bonita Springs' most beloved lifestyles. INCLUDED in your residency are Pelican Landing's Private Beach Island with sugar white sand, umbrellas, chairs &

restrooms. Other INcluded amenities are tennis, pickleball, bocce, fitness and a canoe and kayak park. Lakemont Cove at Pelican Landing is fabulously located at the Center gate and is walking and biking distance to fitness, pickle, bocce, Community Center activities shopping and dining!
