Description

Fully furnished and thoughtfully appointed (exclusion list to be provided), this 2,075 sq. ft. 2023 Pulte residence presents an elevated, unhurried welcome to Southwest Florida. The home is refined rather than ornate—quietly luxurious, immediately livable, and finished with an ease that feels intentional. Impact windows and doors, together with a generator that powers the residence, lend a sense of composure through the season. The upgraded private pool turns the backyard into a secluded retreat, while the climate-controlled garage extends the living with unexpected polish—workshop, studio, or a refined extra room that remains comfortable year-round. Manatee Cove is a gated, natural-gas community with no CDD. Residents gather at the resort-style pool, cabana, picnic area, and fire pit—amenities that feel private and well-kept. The neighborhood sits a short walk from Manatee Elementary and Middle Schools and an easy drive to US-41 conveniences, Marco Island, and Fifth Avenue South. A setting that feels distinguished without being fussy—close to everything that matters, and simple to enjoy.
