Description

A rare waterfront masterpiece, this spectacular custom bayfront residence delivers breathtaking panoramic views, direct Gulf access, and an extraordinary level of luxury—offering the ultimate Southwest Florida waterfront lifestyle. Designed to capture the beauty of its spectacular setting, this 4-bedroom, 4 full and 2 half-bath home combines sophisticated design with incredible indoor/outdoor living. The light filled open floor plan showcases soaring ceilings, oversized tile and hardwood flooring, a dramatic custom glass staircase and walls of glass framing panoramic water views. The gourmet kitchen is a showpiece with premium Viking appliances, built-in coffee maker, expansive island and abundant space for entertaining. The luxurious primary suite features its own private balcony overlooking the bay and an impressive spa-inspired bath. Outside is where the Florida lifestyle truly shines! Enjoy a resort-style pool and spa, expansive outdoor living area with built-in bar and grill, and spectacular sunset views across the water. A newly added artificial-turf putting green sits directly along the seawall, creating an incredible waterfront setting to practice your short game. Boaters will appreciate direct Gulf access and an impressive dock featuring a 32,000-lb platform boat lift plus an additional lift for another boat or water toys. Additional upgrades include a whole-house generator and flood barrier protection for added peace of mind. And for something truly extraordinary—this home even features its own private indoor pickleball court! Elevator in foyer for those that wish to skip the stairs! Ideally located near Fort Myers Beach, this one-of-a-kind bayfront residence delivers the complete Southwest Florida lifestyle—luxury, boating, entertaining, recreation and unforgettable waterfront sunsets, all from your own private paradise.
